JOSEPH RANDELL, CHAIR OF THE NATIONAL AIRLINES COUNCIL OF CANADA, TO ADDRESS IATA'S AVIATION DAY FORUM

OTTAWA, October 24, 2011 – The National Airlines Council of Canada (NACC) is pleased to announce that Joseph Randell, Chair of NACC's Board of Directors, will address attendees at a luncheon speech during IATA's (International Air Transport Association) first annual Aviation Day Forum in Canada. The event will take place in Ottawa, Ontario at the Fairmont Chateau Laurier on October 25, 2011.

IATA's inaugural Aviation Day Forum in Canada will bring airline industry leaders together to discuss perspectives and regional challenges in commercial aviation.

Mr. Randell will address the opportunities, as well as the challenges facing the Canadian aviation industry from the perspective of the largest commercial carriers in Canada. NACC's member airlines currently include Air Canada, Air Transat, Jazz Aviation LP and WestJet. For further information on the event please see: <http://www.airlinecouncil.ca/en/our-partners.html>

The National Airlines Council of Canada is the trade association of Canada's largest commercial Airlines whose purpose is to ensure safe, sustainable and competitive air travel for Canadian consumers.
